LESSON 17:

THE RITES OF SATAN

THE SATANIAN ORDER

“But others in their turn thought of something still more crafty and said, as though consulting their own intelligence in their simplicity, ‘Satan is great and the strongest, and does people a great deal of harm. Why not take refuge in him, worship him instead [of God], and give him honour and blessing, so that he will be appeased by our flattering service and do us no harm, but spare us because we have become his servants?’ And so, again, they have called themselves Satanians.”

land and its spiritual reality. The act of blooding has a long history in witch initiation, in which it is cognate with the tradition of the witch's Mark and the sealing of the compact.

In token of this rebirth unto a new life and the Craft, it is fitting that the witch should now take on a new and secret name. In a covine situation, this name would be known only to the witch's brothers and sisters in the arte. The new witch-name is now spoken in the act of anointing, also related to the tradition of the witch's Mark, and the 'Devil's baptism'. It is therefore an act that should be administered by the presiding witch, guised in the role of the Old One during a rite of covine initiation.

Take up the pot of soot-mixed grease or oil, and mark the hands and then the brow, the latter in the sign of the six-armed cross, speaking these words:

*In the Old One's name,
Be I (name),
M...*
